Greetings from Brainfeed Magazine Group!

It gives me great pleasure to welcome all educators from across India to the 6th edition of Et Tech X. Over the years, Et Tech X has grown into a much-awaited tradition – a place where educators meet, greet, collaborate and celebrate the future of learning together.

We are delighted to share that Et Tech X is growing bigger and more impactful every year. This edition marks the introduction of our Higher Education Conclave, and we are committed to adding at least one new, meaningful component every year to keep the experience fresh and relevant.

Et Tech X is your one-stop destination to explore and procure a wide range of school and institutional needs under one roof. I extend my sincere thanks to all our association partners, speakers, sponsors and exhibitors for their continued trust and support.

The conference themes this year are contemporary, future-oriented and practice-driven. I am confident that every educator attending the conferences and workshops will return with new ideas, insights and actionable learnings to implement in their institutions.

Welcome once again to Et Tech X!

Regards

MESSAGE

It is our privilege and pleasure, on behalf of Et Tech X 2025, to welcome you all to this momentous occasion. This complete event is a proof to the vibrancy, resilience, and potential of our nation's education fraternity.

For years, India has been a significant player in the global education landscape. While Telangana and Andhra Pradesh have long been a powerhouse in the education sector, Et Tech X a dedicated platform solely for the education technology and products, in Hyderabad. We are gathered here to celebrate innovation, collaboration, and the immense potential that lies within our local services, technologies and manufacturing capabilities in the sector.

It is a powerful statement of our collective ambition to move beyond being just a support system and establish the education industry as a strategic pillar of India's value chain. The sheer scale of participation here today, featuring a confluence of manufacturers, technology providers, and innovators, underscores a great positivity related to the future of education in India.

Creativity is our currency, and innovation is our mandate. With each edition of Et Tech X we produce, we seek not only to meet expectations, but to build narratives that captivate the imagination and leave an indelible experience in the hearts of our all participants.

My heartfelt thanks also go to all the exhibitors who have invested time and resources to showcase their innovations, the dedicated organizing team, our sponsors, esteemed supporting associations and media partners and thank you all for being a part of this historic moment.

MESSAGE

Greetings!

Et Tech X 25 – India’s premier Education & Technology Expo – is all set to energise the Hitex Exhibition Centre, Hyderabad, from 11–13 December 2025. This flagship event is a milestone for educators and education leaders, bringing together visionary minds and cutting-edge EdTech innovations under one roof.

I sincerely commend the organizers and all participants for their dedication, and I strongly urge education leaders to make the most of this remarkable platform.

This is an opportunity you simply cannot afford to miss!

Regards

Rajendra Prasad
President - PSPA
(Private School Principal Association)

MESSAGE

In a world where AI is rewriting the rules of learning, one truth remains constant: education is ultimately about people. About trust, emotion, and the quiet confidence that every child can rise when surrounded by belief. I congratulate entire team of Et Tech X — one of the largest and best platforms that brings together those who are shaping the next chapter of India’s schooling.

At Seth M.R. Jaipuria Schools, we see our role not as operators of institutions, but as custodians of possibility. Schools today must do more than deliver content; they must build courage, empathy, adaptability, and a mindset for lifelong learning. Technology will accelerate us, but values will anchor us. We are doing this with being progressive with processes, futuristic curriculum rooted in Indian values - deep focus on Sanskaar and Sanskriti.

As India enters a new era of global citizenship, let us ensure that our students and educators grow not only in competence, but in character — ready for a future where humanity matters more than ever. The education fraternity- together- can make this happen.

MESSAGE

On behalf of ISMA, AP, it gives us great pleasure to extend our warm greetings to all participants, exhibitors, and delegates of the Brainfeed & Et Tech X event being held from 11th to 13th December at HITEX, Hyderabad.

As the Association Partner, ISMA, AP is proud to support a platform that brings together visionary educators, innovators, and solution providers who are shaping the future of learning in India.

In an era defined by rapid transformation, it is essential that schools, technology partners, and policymakers collaborate meaningfully to build educational ecosystems that are future-ready, inclusive, and impactful. As witnessed in the previous years, this event serves as an important convergence point for sharing ideas, showcasing advancements, and inspiring institutions to elevate the quality of education across the country.

I congratulate the organizers for their commitment to excellence and wish all participants a highly enriching and productive experience.

Warm regards,

Sreekanth Koganti

Dear School leaders, Speakers & Exhibitors,

Namaste

TRSMA is proud to be an Association Partner for the 6th Edition of Et Tech X, a landmark platform that brings together the finest innovations, ideas, and insights shaping the future of education in India. Over the years, Et Tech X has emerged as a transformative space for schools to explore cutting-edge technologies, strengthen leadership capacity, and reimagine learning environments.

With its magnanimous expo of 200+ stalls, power-packed conferences, hands-on workshops, and prestigious awards, the event offers unparalleled exposure to advancements in AI, Robotics, Coding, IoT, sports education, infrastructure development, and holistic school improvement. The diverse conferences—spanning K-12, Higher Education, Early Years, Counsellors Summit, and School Management Associations—bring together eminent national and international speakers who inspire future-ready educational leadership. Some presentations are also arranged exclusively for TRSMA school leaders by the officials & field experts about certain statutory school regulatory mechanisms.

For TRSMA, this event has consistently benefitted thousands of private schools across Telangana, empowering school leaders and educators with valuable takeaways and actionable insights. We are delighted to continue our association and firmly believe that every private school leader aspiring for growth, excellence, innovation and future readiness to be part of Et Tech X and experience its rich learning ecosystem.

Warm regards,

Sadula Madhusudhan
State President - TRSMA
(Telangana Recognized School Managements Association)

MESSAGE

Et Tech X stands at the forefront of educational innovation, and its impact on the K–12 sector has never been more vital. As a trusted voice, you consistently illuminate the trends, ideas, and breakthroughs shaping the future of learning. Your commitment to producing high-quality, insightful content empowers educators, administrators, and policymakers to keep abreast of times that truly benefit students.

Beyond your editorial excellence, your leadership in creating meaningful exhibition spaces has set a new standard in the education industry. These platforms don't just showcase products and solutions—they spark dialogue, inspire collaboration, and help schools explore the possibilities of tomorrow's classrooms.

At a time when technology is rapidly transforming how children learn, by continuing to champion progress, elevate emerging voices, and spotlight transformative technologies, you help ensure that education remains dynamic, equitable, and future-ready.

Keep leading, keep inspiring, and keep shaping the direction of K–12 education.

Warm regards,

Novo Wellness is a digital tool for students, teachers and educators.

Students can track their wellness journey based on the results of several assessment tests interspersed through the academic year. There are informational resources and cognitive games to help them reach their goals, as well as educational articles on Cyberbullying, academic pressure, substance abuse and more.

Teachers and Administrators can track the progress of each student and the class as a whole, only intervening when special attention is required. Educational resources are also available to better equip teachers so that they may handle sensitive scenarios in the best way possible.

A comprehensive digital solution designed to support student well-being in educational institutions, the Novo Wellness platform bridges the gap between students needing support and the resources available to them, while providing administrators with the tools needed to monitor and improve campus-wide mental health initiatives.
